

Puerto Rican music is a big part in Puerto Rican festivals. In June musicians and music lovers from around the world flock to San Juan and Ponce. In August San Juan hosts the International Salsa Festival. And on the 12 of December Ponce celebrates Las Mananitas to honor our lady of Guadalupe, the city's patron saint. All these festivals have lots of music in them and dancing too.